ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. The contest has two categories: Open Category and Student Category.
 - (a) The Open Category is open to Malaysians of all ages.
 - (b) The Student Category is open to all Malaysian university/college/school students. The short film entry submitted to the Student Category must be produced entirely by students
2. Only one (1) entry per contestant is permitted.
3. All entries must be produced on or after 1 January 2016.
4. All components of the film must be the original creative content/production of the contestant.
5. All entries MUST NOT have been submitted to other film or video competitions/festivals.
6. The contest only accepts short drama. Other genres such as documentary are not accepted.
7. The film dialogue may be in any vernacular languages spoken in Malaysia but must have subtitles in English and/or Chinese.
8. Entries shall not contain any profanity, nudity, pornographic images or explicit sexual themes, graphic violence, defamatory or libelous statements or material deemed illegal. Entries which are deemed inappropriate or infringe any intellectual property rights or other rights shall also be disqualified. The organiser and judges of the contest have the sole discretion and decisions made are final.
9. Each entry shall be an original work which is under no restriction, contractual or otherwise, that shall prevent the use of the film by the contest organiser. All productions must be free of any encumbrances, liens and claims by third parties. The contestant must acknowledge and confirm that nothing in the film infringes on any intellectual property rights including but not limited to, copyrights or trademarks, or violates any person's rights of privacy or publicity, and that all necessary releases, licenses and permissions have been secured by the contestant.
10. All photos and CDs submitted are non-returnable and shall become the property of the organiser who may use them for promotional, publishing and exhibition purposes without notification and payment to the contestants.
11. Contestants are responsible for securing necessary permission, talent and location releases and licenses for visual and audio material contained in the submissions. Contestants shall only use original music created for their entry or royalty-free music and NOT music protected by copyright.
12. The contest organiser shall not be responsible or liable for any loss, damage, claims, costs or expenses incurred in the production or delivery of the film entries.
13. The contest organiser reserves the right to disqualify any contestant who does not comply with these requirements and rules.

HOW TO ENTER

1. Contestants shall submit an original short film of their own work that is NOT LESS than five (5) minutes duration and NOT LONGER than ten (10) minutes screening time excluding end credits.
2. The contest starts on 1 June 2017 and ends on 31 July 2017 (“Contest Period”).
3. Entries are to be received by the contest committee on or before 6 pm, 31 July 2017. Entries submitted outside the Contest Period shall be disqualified.
4. Contestants shall download, complete the Entry Form and send their fully completed and signed Entry Form to blossomshortfilm@gmail.com
5. The contestant shall upload the short film onto their respective YouTube channel. Uploaded films on YouTube must be categorised as “Unlisted” and must not be shared on any other online platforms. The full YouTube URL link must be included in the Entry Form.
6. Shortlisted finalists will be required to submit their high-resolution video entries in DVD (data format: .mov or .avi) and will be used for screening during the festival month.

SELECTION OF WINNERS / PANEL JUDGES

All decisions of the judges are final. No enquiries or appeals shall be entertained.
